MILO, AN INTERNAL APP

For Revolos

Milo is an internal app that a Revolos sales staff uses to get quotes and/or compare plans for their customer who's shopping for a vehicle insurance.

The goal of this project is to make the app interaction more fun and less mundane. This is a "reskin" – form fields structure and sizes must remain the same due to budget and resource limitations.

Note: This part of the project was cut due to lack of resources.

Payment Calculator Drop-down

The screenshot shows the Revolos website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Revolos logo, a location selector for 'Acura Volvo of Athens', and links for 'Quotes & Contracts', 'Maintenance', 'Reports', 'Claims', 'Support', and 'Log Out'. Below the navigation bar is a progress indicator with three stages: 'Let's start.', 'Almost there...', and 'You made it!'. A 'Create New Quote & Contract' button is positioned above the progress indicator. The main content area features a 'VEHICLE DETAILS' section showing '2008 Acura / RL | 15,000K' with an 'Edit' button, and a 'PAYMENT CALCULATOR' dropdown menu that is currently open, showing a plus sign. On the left, a sidebar titled 'Product Selected' shows 'STAR PROTECT' as the selected product. Below this, there are sections for 'Eligibility' (with 'Used' selected), 'Coverage' (with 'Bronze', 'Copper', 'Diamond', and 'Titanium' selected), and 'Terms' (with '3 months / 4,500' selected). The main content area also displays 'STAR PROTECT' options for 'Bronze', 'Copper', and 'Diamond', each with a 'Months / miles' field and a price of '$100'.

This screenshot shows the same Revolos website interface, but with the 'PAYMENT CALCULATOR' dropdown menu closed, showing a minus sign. The 'VEHICLE DETAILS' section remains the same. The 'STAR PROTECT' dropdown menu is now closed, and the 'Total Price' field is visible, showing '$100'. The 'Min 5% Down' dropdown is set to '5%', and the 'Down Payment' field is empty. The 'Monthly Payment' field shows '0.00' and the 'Balance' field also shows '0.00'. The sidebar and 'STAR PROTECT' options remain the same as in the previous screenshot.
